Casting off from Victoria Harbour next to the bustling 'Tall Ships Village' at 12.15pm before hoisting the sails as you reach Hartlepool Bay, your captain for the next few hours will plot a course as the crew sets the sails.

If you are keen and look shipshape you may even be able to help set the rig and ensure all lines are tight. You won't forget the feeling of powering through the waves by wind-power only in a magnificent ship straight from the golden age of sail.

You'll still be exhilarated as you head back into port and for dry land again, ready to enjoy the rest of the Festival's delights.

Price includes:

- ~ Welcome drink
- ~ Hot-fork buffet
